

Zoning Information

Residential District: The land use and intensity of the area is low density residential. Some mix of building types may be included, e.g., two-family, three-family and four-family dwelling units. Supplementary and complementary uses may exist in the area, such as recreation areas, schools, churches, and community centers.

For additional information, contact the City of Maryville Planning Development Services Department at 865-273-3500 or visit www.maryvillegov.com/planning.html